The City of Glasgow Chorus

The City of Glasgow Chorus was founded by Graham Taylor in 1983. The main aim of the Chorus is to perform the more demanding or seldom heard works by mainstream classical composers. The Chorus performs mainly in the Glasgow area giving concerts in the City Halls and the Glasgow Royal Concert Hall but it has also performed in the Usher Hall in Edinburgh and other venues in the central belt.

In addition, it gives many fund-raising church concerts in its home city of Glasgow and is frequently hired by concert promoters for a variety of different events.

The Chorus receives no government or local authority funding and relies on support from individuals, charitable trusts and companies together with its own fund-raising ventures to cover the cost of promoting its concerts.

This fund raising initiative provides two sponsorship options - personal sponsorship of one of our members or joining Amici del Coro which offers the opportunity to give a higher level of support.
